

Task Force on High Quality Parenting Time Member Roster

Colo. Rev. Stat. § 19-3-903 Task force on high-quality parenting time - creation - steering committee - membership (Colorado Revised Statutes (2022 Edition))

The members of the steering committee serve as the executive committee of the task force. The steering committee is composed of a representative of the following agencies or organizations, selected by the executive director of the agency or organization:

- (2)(a) The office of the respondent parents' counsel;
- (b) The division of child welfare in the department of human services; (c) The office of the child's representative;
- (d) The child protection ombudsman's office; and
- (e) A statewide association of human and social services directors.

Statutory Requirements of Membership on the High Quality Parenting Time Task Force:

The membership of the task force must not exceed twenty-five members and, to the extent practicable, must include persons from throughout the state and must reflect the racial, ethnic, and geographic diversity of the state. The steering committee members are members of the task force. The steering committee shall jointly appoint the remaining task force members by consensus, or, if no consensus is reached, by majority vote of the steering committee. The remaining task force members must meet the following criteria:

- (a) One member representing the court improvement program;
- (b) One member who is either retired or currently serving as a judge or magistrate with experience in the child protection system;
- (c) Two members who represent service providers, with one member representing service providers who provide services in an urban county and one member representing service providers who provide services in a rural county;
- (d) One member who is a director or administrator of a county department;
- (e) Three members representing the county departments of human or social services, at least one of which must be a county attorney, with two members representing urban counties and one member representing a rural county;
- (f) One member who is a licensed psychiatrist, psychologist, social worker, or therapist who works with children who have been abused or neglected;
- (g) Two parents with lived experience in the child welfare system, including a parent who has a disability or has a child with a disability;
- (h) Two members with lived experience in the child welfare system as children;
- (i) One member who is a foster parent or kinship provider;
- (j) A service provider who works with parents or children with disabilities;
- (k) A social worker, family advocate, or parent advocate with experience serving families in dependency and neglect cases; and

(I) Any other individual or representative with relevant experience, as determined by the steering committee.
